Article XI. Geographical Interest Groups/Special Interest Groups
Section A: Purpose
The purpose of this Article is to provide guidelines and requirements for affiliated interest groups of the Mississippi Chapter of ASTD. These interest groups consist of two types: Geographical Interest Groups and Special Interest Groups.
• Geographical Interest Groups (GIGs) are branches of the Mississippi Chapter associated with a region of the State. These subgroups meet regularly to provide programs and networking opportunities to professionals who are geographically distant from the Mississippi Chapter, which meets in Jackson.

• Special Interest Groups (SIGs) are subgroups of the Mississippi Chapter or a GIG that meet regularly with peers who have an interest in similar topics. These small groups meet to explore their topic, share best practices and keep up with the latest information.

Section B: Governance and Management of Interest Groups
Interest groups shall comply with the bylaws of the Mississippi Chapter of ASTD. Failure to comply with the bylaws is considered grounds for dissolving the chapter/interest group affiliation. Each GIG shall maintain an elected leadership team. Members of the leadership team must be members in good standing. A member in good standing is one who meets the requirements for membership, and whose dues are paid for the membership year. Special Interest Groups normally do not have a formal leadership structure.

Section C: Membership in the Chapter and Geographical Interest Group
Members join a GIG by becoming paid members of the Mississippi Chapter of ASTD and indicating a preference for participating in a particular GIG.

Section D: Launching of an ASTD Chapter from a Geographical Interest Group
A GIG has the option of becoming a self-supporting chapter of ASTD when the national membership figures of the GIG reach the threshold number required for an ASTD Chapter. Upon reaching the required number, the GIG may petition national ASTD to become a self-supporting chapter. At that point, the Mississippi Chapter will be released from its obligation to sponsor the GIG and any income earmarked for reimbursement to the group will be transferred to the newly formed chapter.

Section E: Creating a Leadership Team for a Geographical Interest Group
A GIG will elect a minimum of three officers from their members. The leadership positions for the leadership team shall include a President, Treasurer, and Secretary along with additional leadership positions determined appropriate. Titles for these positions may vary according to the GIG.

• President
  The President is responsible for managing the GIG in accordance with this Article and the bylaws of the Mississippi Chapter of ASTD. The President presides at meetings and sets the agenda for meetings of the leadership team.

• Treasurer
  The Treasurer shall report on the financial condition of the GIG at meetings and at other times when called upon by the President.

• Secretary
  The Secretary shall record and maintain minutes for GIG meetings and perform other administrative duties as assigned.

• Other Team Leadership Positions
  The other team leadership positions may include those listed below:
  • Membership
Elections for a GIG leadership team will be held according to the by-laws of the Mississippi Chapter. Members of the GIG leadership team shall be elected to serve terms of at least one year. GIG leaders may stand for re-election to the same position but may serve no more than two consecutive terms for any one position, unless approved by a majority of the voting members. A majority of the voting members are required to elect leadership team members. GIG leaders shall be confirmed by the Chapter Board of Directors.

Section F: Responsibility for GIG Expenses and Collection of Membership Dues

Membership dues paid by GIG members are used to pay all expenses incurred by the group. Annual membership dues will be consistent with annual membership dues of the Mississippi Chapter; however monthly meeting fees will be set in accordance with GIG needs. Any changes in the contract for the audit must be passed by a majority of the boards of all Mississippi GIGs and the Chapter board.

GIG membership funds will be retained in a GIG checking account maintained in accordance with fund requirements as designated for the Mississippi Chapter in these bylaws. GIGs are responsible for sending bank statements of this checking account to the Certified Public Accountant retained by the Mississippi Chapter no less than quarterly each year. The Certified Public Accountant is retained to conduct the external financial audit required by National ASTD CORE requirements.

Section G: Reimbursement of Geographical Interest Group Expenses

The GIG Treasurer and Chapter Treasurer shall communicate membership numbers and financials as needed to facilitate the reimbursement of expenses. The GIG Treasurer shall submit detailed receipts to the Chapter Treasurer for reimbursement recognizing that expenses must be clear at the time of the external audit. The Chapter Treasurer shall respond with payment of approved expenses in a timely manner.

Reimbursement beyond the amount designated for the GIG shall require approval by the Mississippi Chapter Board of Directors. Expenses for GIG services maintained by the Chapter (i.e., website expenses, etc.) shall be communicated by the Chapter Treasurer to the GIG Treasurer and taken out of the interest group’s designated funds.

Section H: Funds Collected by the Geographical Interest Group

Any funds collected by a GIG outside those reimbursed for Chapter membership, shall be controlled as approved by the interest group’s leadership team. An accurate accounting of any funds shall be maintained by the GIG Treasurer and reported to the Chapter Board on a regular basis. The annual external audit of financial records required by National ASTD CORE requirements will include review of the financial records of these funds.

Section I: Disbandment of an Interest Group
Upon disbandment of a GIG (by process other than forming a Chapter), all remaining funds designated for the GIG’s expenses shall be incorporated into the general operating funds of the Mississippi Chapter of ASTD.

Section J: Interest Group Membership on the Chapter Board
Each GIG will identify a member to serve in a voting position on the Chapter’s Board of Directors. This person will attend regularly scheduled board meetings and provide an update to the Chapter Board on the GIG.

Section K: Use of the Chapter Website by Interest Groups
The ASTD Chapter website (www.astdms.org) is provided for the benefit of all Chapter members. Each Geographical Interest Group (GIG) may have a tab on the Main Menu of the Chapter website with a home page and as many additional pages as desired.

If the GIG prefers to have its own website apart from the Chapter site, the ASTD logo must be used in compliance with national ASTD regulations and the MS Chapter of ASTD Board Handbook (the Handbook).

The Webmaster will review all web content frequently and will remove any content considered inappropriate or not in keeping with the Handbook.
